

The Choice

I have been betrayed by this government
What about you my friend?
Now I just distrust this reality
What about the truth and what about being free?

Wounded by the thorns of a bush from U.S.A.
It is time to realize that freedom is a blame

There's a bottle, empty, and a bottle's full
Which one will you choose?
There's a bottle, empty, and a bottle's full
Which one will you choose?

I have been betrayed by this government
What I thought to be right now is wrong
How can people trust in this life so insincere?
How can I survive if around i find just lies?

There's a bottle, empty, and a bottle's full
Which one will you choose?
Please choose the bottle empty
And give me the bottle full
But which one is the full?

I have been betrayed by this government
You can expect but lies from such a smiling face

There's a bottle, empty, and a bottle's full
Which one will you choose?
Let me drink my whisky and think of something else
For I have made my choice
Please take the bottle empty
And give me the bottle full
Do you know which one's the full?
Please take the bottle empty
And give me the bottle full
Do you know who is the fool?
