

Tomorrow Never Ends

Welcome to tomorrow buddy, it's the day you struggled to see
Will you be able now to live and to be free
You're now one of those who have really won their fight
Struggle for survival with the dream of being all right

Welcome to the future, walk out and see how it feels
Will you buy a house or that BMW that you dreamed
And when we travel to the next gig will you walk all day again
Will we go see new places and laugh on yesterdays

It's your life, tomorrow never ends
Is it real? Tomorrow never ends

Welcome to your future, will you still choose to be alone?
Will your music and your friends be enough or there'll be more?
And if you buy that house, spare some beers in the fridge for me
You know you won't be much alone there if it depends on me

It's your life, tomorrow never ends
Is it real? Tomorrow never ends
